

Optimising Behavioural Safety

Andy Harvey
UK Co-ordinator
BNFL Behavioural Safety

BNFL Experience

- Organisational Change
- Optimising BBS techniques
- Future developments

Business Groups

Warrington Management Operations

Westinghouse UK

MGBG

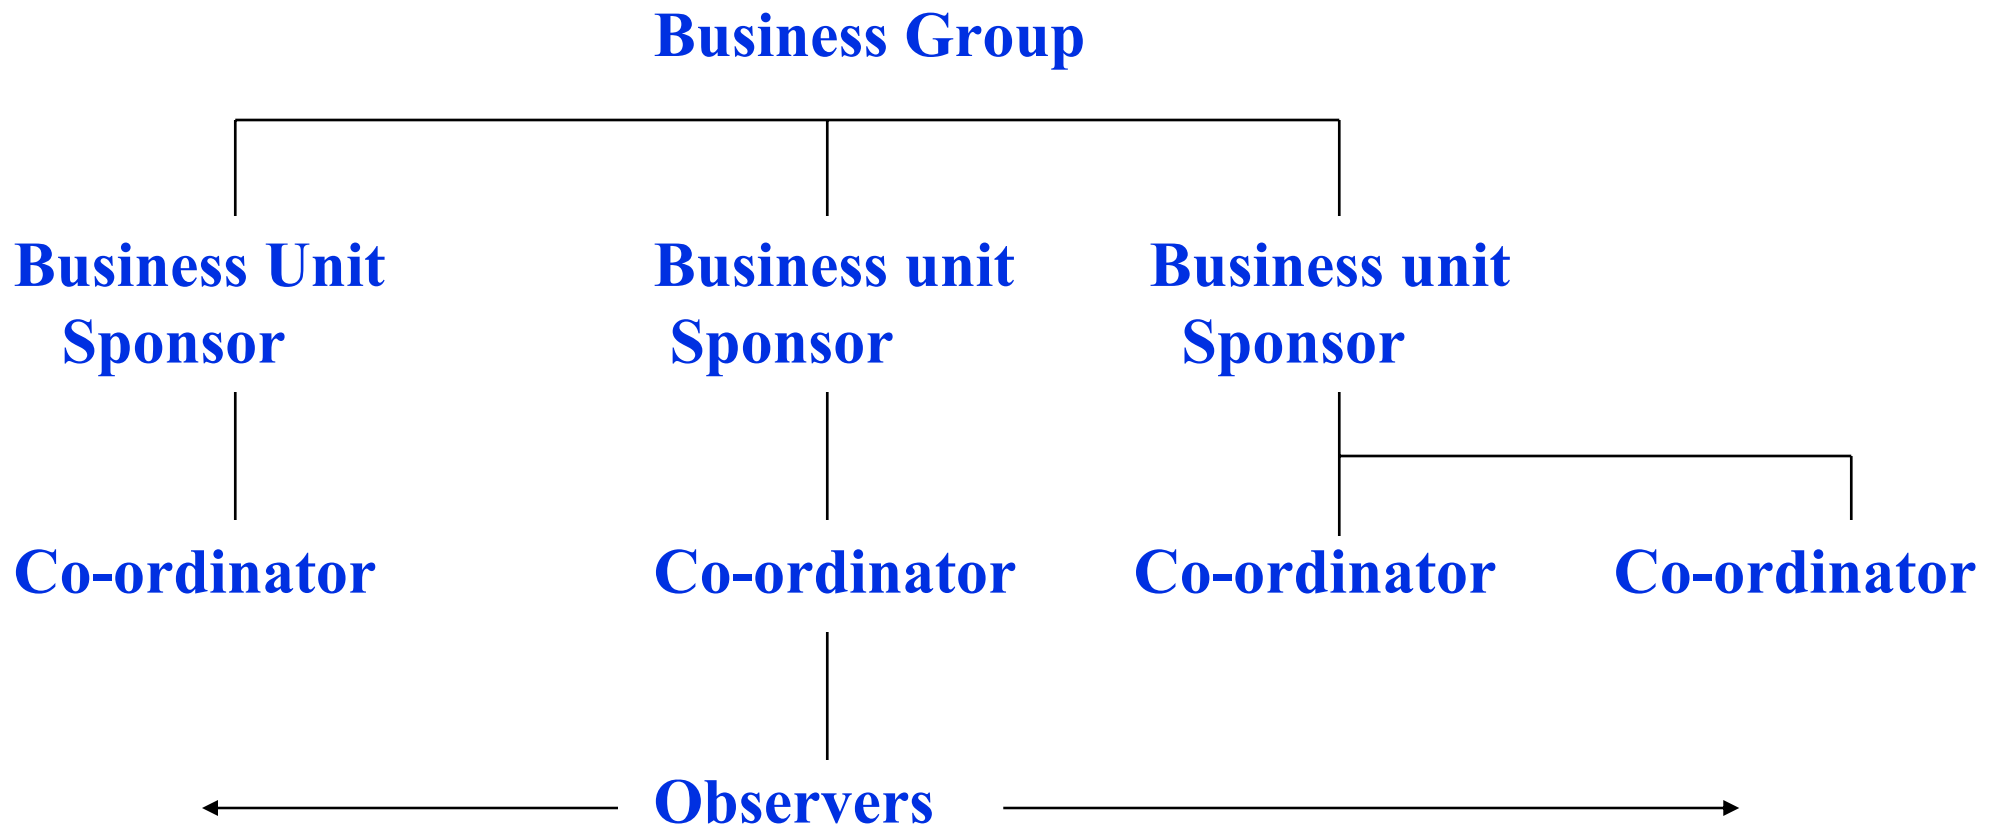

Environmental Services

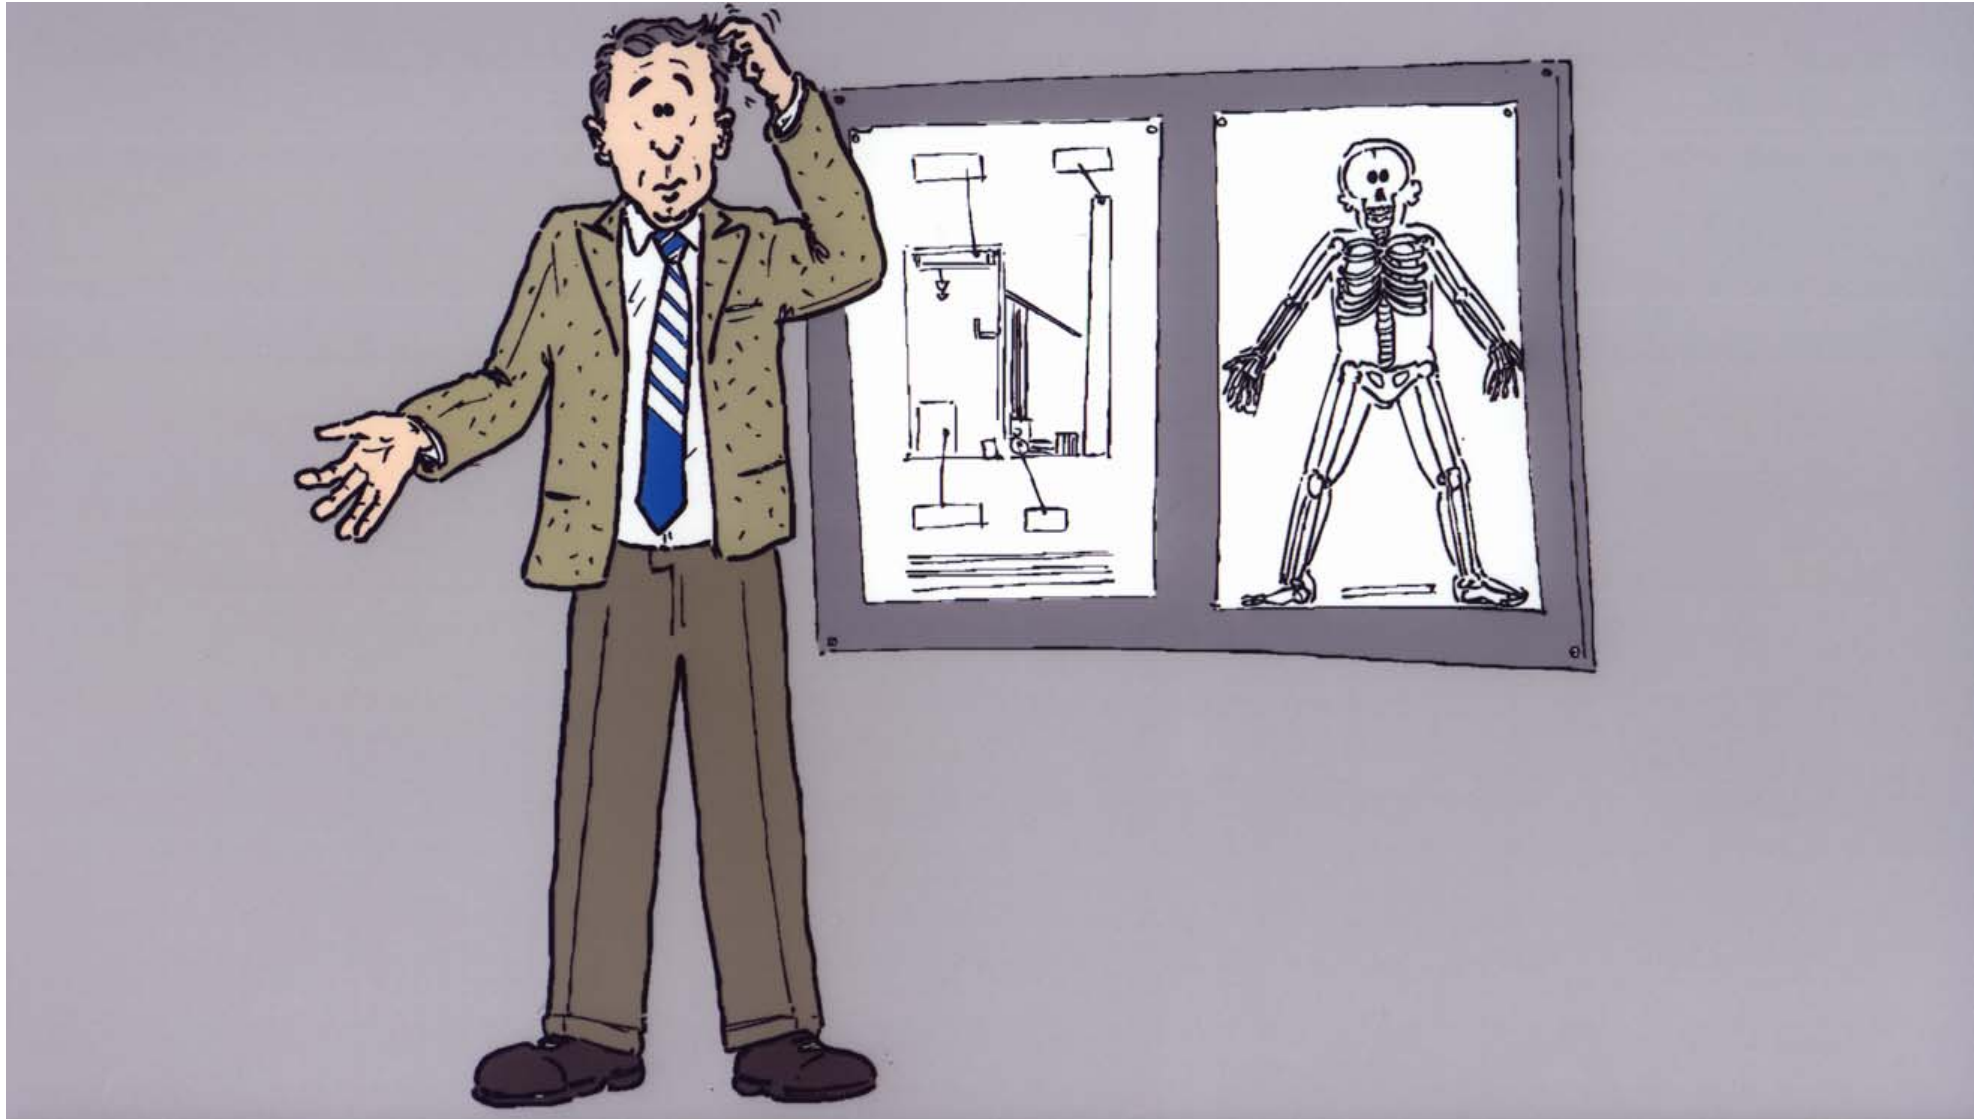

BBS Structure

Organisational change

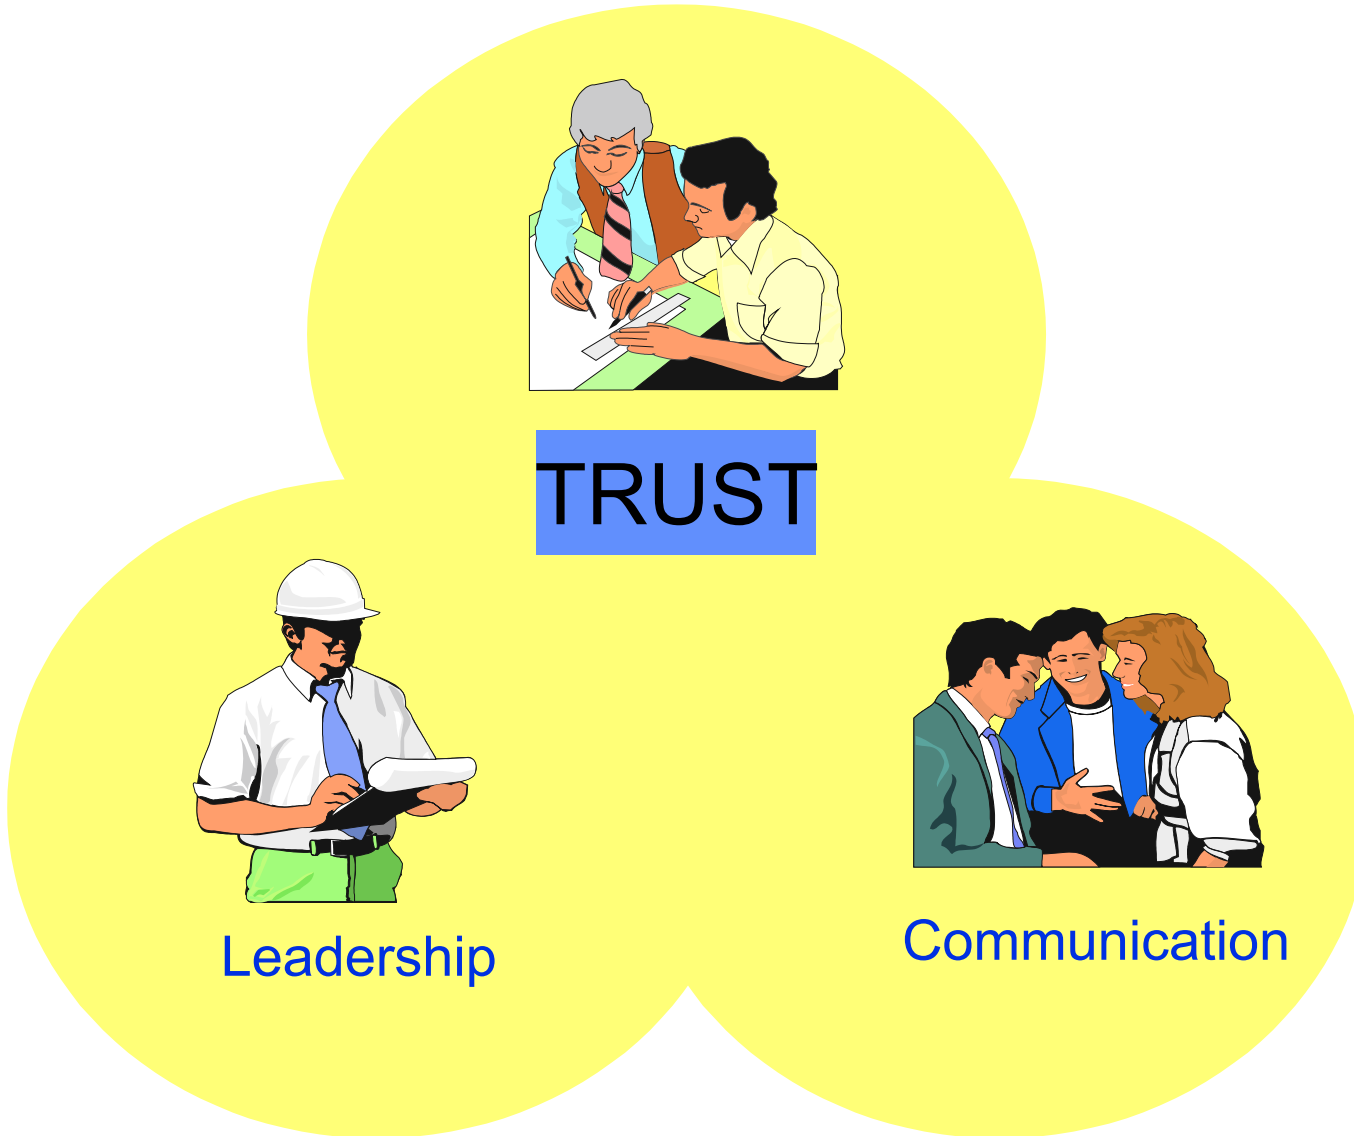

Teams

Navigating through change

Leading change in Behavioural Safety

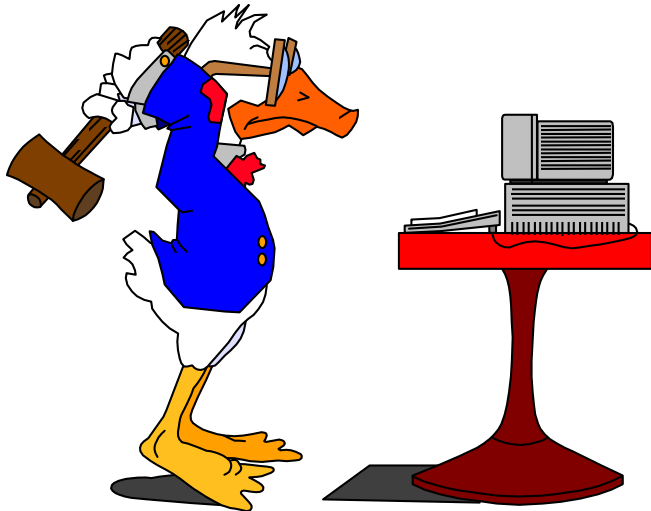

- Understand the value by carrying out observation/feedback; demonstrates the desired behaviour
- Coach others and help them develop their potential
- Understand the big picture and is able to translate changes to opportunities for the organisation
- Challenges the status quo and breaks down artificial barriers
- Transfers energy and enthusiasm by creating a vision that others find inspiring and motivating

Influencing Improvements

Training

Design

Procedures

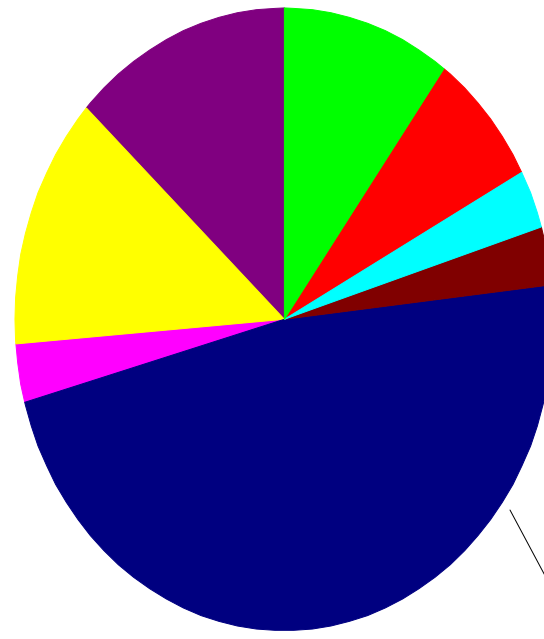

Influencing Improvements

Repetition

Facility & Equipment

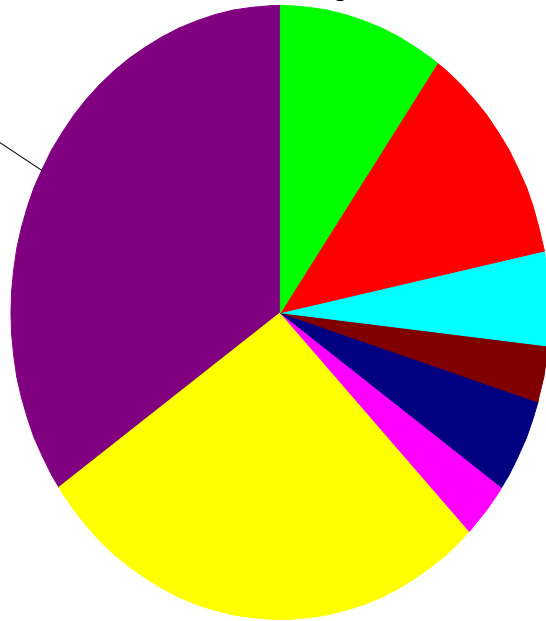

Influencing Improvements

Procedures

Inexperience & Over-Familiarity

Developing our Future

- The highest standards of safe behaviour and safe attitude in
 - Environment
 - Health
 - Safety
 - Quality
- Safe behaviour in everything we do
- Lead by example

Moving toward Human Performance

